Families Flock to Family Fun Festival

By Jean Perry

We live in a time when words like acorn, bluebell, buttercup, dandelion, fern, mistletoe, pasture, and willow are being culled from the Oxford Junior Dictionary to make way for words such as blog, broadband, chatroom, cut-and-paste, and MP3 player. It means that those earlier words of nature have been deemed less significant in the lives of modern-day children, used less frequently in the lexicon of childhood, while the latter words that were seemingly non-existent in the last generation are now common everyday words, ones that children must know in the 21st Century classroom.

It is true now that only about 10 percent of children play regularly in settings of nature compared to 40 percent of the last generation, with about 40 percent of children never regularly playing anywhere outdoors.

But then you see a group of kids outside in the park playing pumpkin bowling and families enjoying an old-fashioned hayride through the village streets of Mattapoisett and, even if just for a day, the simple joys of childhood are preserved and enjoyed.

We have the Mattapoisett Lions Club to thank for luring the hundreds of families and neighbors out to Shipyard Park on Sunday, November 3, to enjoy a crisp autumn afternoon of outdoor games, treats, entertainment, and hayrides during the Lions' third annual fall Family Fun Festival, a day of free fun for all to appreciate.

And what would this community look like with the Lions Club, which provides us with some of the very staples of Tri-Town life – Harbor Days, Holiday in the Park, the Ned's Point Easter Egg Hunt, the Triathlon, and now the Family Fun Festival, not to mention the various other seasonal fundraisers that provide our community with generous gifts to charities and individuals, and scholarships to our young adults. Their motto is, simply: "We serve." Did you know that some of the gifts the Lions Mattapoisett is blessed to be served by a group of dedicated individuals who make up one of the area's strongest and most visible Lions Clubs. By contributing to the Lions Club, we contribute to our community and, ultimately, to each other and ourselves. day of the eleventh month – in recognition of the 100th anniversary of the end to World War I.

In addition to this solemn remembrance, Marion and Mattapoisett will each host their own Veterans Day observances on Sunday and Monday, respectively.

On Sunday, November 11, the Town of Marion will hold its annual Veterans Day ceremony in the Sippican School multipurpose room, 16 Spring Street at 11:00 am. Guests may enter the building though the bus loop on Park Street. The Sippican School Band led by Mrs. Hannah Moore will perform selections of patriotic music, and the guest speaker this year will be Marion resident Col. Jonathan F. Henry, retired U.S. Army. The community is invited to join the Town of Marion as it honors our veterans.

In Mattapoisett, the members of the Florence Eastman Post 280 of the American Legion invites everyone to join them at their annual Veterans Day ceremony on Monday, November 12, at 11:00 am at the Old Hammondtown School. This year Post 280 is honored to have Col. Michael Mendenhall of the Newport War College its guest speaker, as well as a wide variety of Mattapoisett talent.

Providing entertainment will be Mattapoisett's very own, Jillian Zucco, Miss Massachusetts 2017, along with the Showstoppers, the Old Hammondtown Band, and the Center School Chorus. Come one, come all, and show your support for those who have proudly served our country.

The Mattapoisett Library: A Brief History By George B. Emmons

The red brick landmark of the Mattapoisett Free Public Library standing at 7 Barstow Street since 1904 received financing for its building from a $10,000 donation from wealthy financier George Purrington and its property site from Ned's Point summer resident from Boston Samuel Warren. This generous combination of gift from a town benefactor and a summer resident was a cooperative spirit of alliance benefiting the library that still lives on to this

Before that, the books that found a home here had shuttled from pillar to post, first out of a private collection of Reverend Robbins then to the home of Isaiah Atsatt, and in 1842 they moved again to the east village schoolhouse. In 1899, the collection was combined with the original books of a Mrs. S. F. Swift and moved into its new home.

The library was initially open just two hours a day, three days a week, but in 1921, the milestone of a children's section was added and continued evolving over the years as an elementary literary educational department. Equally as historic, in 1933, two full-time librarians, Miss Tilden and Miss Fox, had been hired to administrate care and distribution of some 9,716 books. The librarians would set a public relations tradition to interest the public, which played a vital role and fostered future support that would continue to grow over subsequent years.

This friendly and considerate conversation gradually built up a confidence to elevate the librarian's personal respect into a perceived fountain of literary information. Even today, the expectations of a librarian's literary knowledge varies from asking for advice on what to read to a discussion on a wealth of other topics that happen to come into the patron's mind.

By the turn of the next century, growth of the Mattapoissett Library's book collection resulted in an increased attendance, requiring additional administration and an eventual $5.5 million renovation and expansion project. For some twelve years, Frances H. Gordon, chairman of the Building Committee, and Judith E. Wallace, Library Director, with the dedicated support of Project Manager Robert A. Cattley, eventually brought the project to ribbon cutting ceremony. By July 16, 2008, they had raised $2 million in donations. In addition, the Town of Mattapoissett was awarded a $2 million LSTA Library Building Construction grant from the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners. The balance was made up with taxpayer support, leading to the final construction of the expanded facility, as illustrated in my drawing, with the two original benefactors looking down upon it with looks of approval for the endorsement of their original generosity.

Back in 1988, the Mattapoissett Free Public Library automated to join S.E.A.L. (Southeastern Automated Libraries,) and later S.E.A.L. merged with A.B.L.E. to form S.A.I.L.S. in the year 2000 (A.B.L.E. was a more northern group of libraries). The formation of this member-driven, non-profit entity facilitated the flow of literary and informational resources by many fold.

Two years ago, when I first walked in the door of the library as a new resident, I was immediately welcomed by Library Director Susan Pizzolato and her staff with a feeling that I had entered a whole new world of reading, research, programs, and Internet expertise. They made me feel at home with all their help to transmit my articles and scanned drawings to an equally receptive Wanderer staff.

Let me conclude by quoting Mark Twain on this subject in addressing the Board of Directors at Fairhaven's Millicent Library dedication in 1894: "A public library is the most enduring of memorials. May there always be libraries, when by mutations of language, the books that are in them will always speak in a lost tongue to our posterity." Allow me to add to his words of approval that we are truly blessed by looking back into history for preservation of our literary past, as well as to the established Mattapoisett tradition that is in good hands for the future.

Rochester Police Chief Robert Small made the recommendation to appoint Donovan, who sponsored herself at the part-time police academy and finished two months ago.

In other matters, the board postponed appointing three names to the Agricultural Commission until Selectman Brad Morse, who was absent this night, could join the board in voting.

The board renewed its annual agreement with the Lakeville Animal Shelter for another year. Szyndlar recommended the renewal, saying, "It's been working out fine for the town. ... This is our best option."

The board was also pleased to receive an additional $60,000 in Chapter 90 funding from the governor, bringing the total for fiscal year 2019 to just over $362,000.

The launch date for the new textile recycling program provided by WasteZero is December 7. There will be a community access announcement recorded and run on ORCTV, and the Town will be following up by posting the video to its Facebook page and Town website. The service will be provided to the town at no cost to taxpayers.

The next meeting of the Rochester Board of selectmen is scheduled for November 19 at 6:00 pm at the Rochester Town Hall.

Town Administrator to Retire in March

Marion Board of Selectmen

By Jean Perry

After nearly 12 years in the position, Marion's Town Administrator Paul Dawson announced that he will retire next year during the November 6 Marion Board of Selectmen meeting.

"After a lot of soul searching and a lot of looking at my family situation, I've decided that ... I will be retiring from my position effective March 15, 2019," Dawson stated, leaving the board four months to search for his replacement.

Dawson recalled his cancer diagnosis back in February 2016, saying that since then he has been living with some side effects of the surgery, and told the board that his wife as of late has also been experiencing some health concerns.

"This has been a very difficult decision for me,"

Dawson said. "And to quote the famous philosopher Kenny Rogers," Dawson quipped, "You've got to know when to hold 'em and know when to fold 'em, and for me the time has come to fold 'em."

Dawson thanked the Town and all its employees and volunteers over the years and vowed, "I'm not going anywhere."

"I will never leave the town high and dry," said Dawson. "I am happy to participate in any way the board wants me to moving forward. ... I'll only be a phone call away."

"We appreciate your service and we understand some of the personal challenges ... and we respect your decision," said Selectman Jon Waterman.

Dawson also announced the resignation of Gary Carreiro, treasurer/ collector of 11 years. Carreiro has taken a position with the Town of Dartmouth.

The board will hold a special meeting to discuss these two personnel matters, and also to discuss the recently released DPW Organizational Structure Report so the Town can move forward with the recruitment of a new DPW director.

In other news, the selectmen voted to appropriate $27,737 in remaining Community Preservation Act funds to execute a four-phase proposal to stabilize the exterior "envelope" of the Marion Town House.

Dawson said T2 Architects has devised an initial project broken down into four phases – assessment, schematic design, cost estimating, and report – in order to proceed with the preservation of the Town House, as Dawson put it, "in a more logical and manageable fashion."

While consulting with the same team that performed the initial study of the Town House renovation project, Phase 1 will be an updated assessment of exterior deterioration, air and water filtration, and windows. Phase 2 will result in updated drawings for roof replacement, window and door replacement, siding, and trim, and waterproofing of the basement. Phase 3 will develop a cost estimate for each element of the work and determine how to phase the projects over time. Phase 4 will be a final report with plans, section and diagrams, costs, and a schedule of implementation.

"Whatever we need to do to protect the envelope of the building," said Dawson. "I think we can all agree that that is the most logical first step to take."

The cost of this endeavor cannot exceed the $27,737 amount appropriated that night. The funding will come from the remaining $140,000 in CPC money already appropriated.

"It seems to accomplish what we wanted," said Waterman.

Also during the meeting, the board continued the public hearing for the Board of Assessors' reclassification hearing until November 20 because, according to Hills, the assessors were not yet ready to hold the meeting.

In other matters, the Town will offer a short-term solution for leaf disposal for residents, possibly starting as early as this weekend of November 10-11 and continuing until the end of November and possibly longer, if needed. The time for residents to bring leaves (no brush or other debris) and certainty of the dates has yet to be determined, so residents should check the Town website frequently as the details, once finalized, will be posted.

There will be a recycling workshop for residents on Wednesday, November 14, at 7:00 pm at the Marion Music Hall.

The next regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen is scheduled for November 20 at 7:00 pm at the Marion Town House.

Marijuana Public Hearing Ignites Little Interest

Mattapoisett Planning Board

By Marilou Newell

On November 5, the Mattapoisett Planning Board had a new member – for one night only. Boy Scout Andrew Poulin of Mattapoisett Troop 53 sat with the Planning Board members as he observed local government at work. Poulin is working on his Communications Merit Badge – one of many steps he plans to complete on his way to achieving Eagle.

After Poulin's introduction, it was down to business as the Planning Board held a final public hearing to give residents ample opportunity to ask questions or voice opinions on the issue of creating a new zoning district specifically for the sale and distribution of medical marijuana ahead of the Fall Special Town Meeting – the silence was deafening.

Chairman Tom Tucker read the public notice, opening the hearing for an article to go before Town Meeting that creates a new zoning bylaw. The article titled "Medical Marijuana Treatment Centers Zoning Bylaw" was explained by board member Janice Robbins who gave a brief overview of the process employed by a subcommittee charged with the responsibility of drafting the new zoning bylaw. The subcommittee was comprised of personnel from the police and fire departments, two business owners, town counsel, and Robbins representing the Planning Board.

"The purpose of establishing a Medical Marijuana Overlay District (Section 5.11) is to regulate the use. Medical marijuana is treated differently than recreational marijuana," Robbins said. The approach was to regulate where it could be sold. "We thought we'd be better off to implement controls for the interest of the town," said Robbins.

Robbins said the committee drafted the zoning bylaw language under the guidance of town counsel and that the purpose of the new bylaw was not to impose additional regulations on it since the state has that authority, but to regulate where in the community it could be located within the confines of state regulations. She said that owners of medical marijuana outlets had to enter into an agreement with the state and the town, but that licenses are issued by the state."

Tucker offered this perspective: "If we did nothing, they could be in any General Business District location."

Robbins added, "Our General Business District along Route 6 is mixed with residential zoning. To avoid that, we picked the Limited Industrial District."

Tucker, who over several public hearings on the topic urged residents to participate in debate and discussion prior to the Special Town Meeting, said again, "We hope this doesn't get debated on Town Meeting floor."

Tucker opened the hearing to public comment. There was none. The only question posed was an inquiry on where exactly the Limited Industrial District is located. After explaining that the location was, in fact, along Industrial Drive off North Street, there were no other questions.

The public hearing was closed and the Planning Board members unanimously voted to send the article to the selectmen for inclusion on the warrant.

Earlier in the evening, a Form A Approval Not Required application from Chase Canopy to subdivide a residential lot from a business lot located at 117 Fairhaven Road was approved as presented.

A public hearing for a Form C Definitive Subdivision Plan for Snow Fields Estates submitted by Dennis Arsenault was granted a 90-day extension and a continuation until November 19 to give the applicant more time to process peer review documents.

Also continued to November 19 was a public hearing for another Form C Definitive Subdivision Plan for Eldridge Estates, 8-8R Prospect Road, submitted by Scott Snow. Planning Board Administrator Mary Crain said the applicant would be submitting an entirely new plan that included a change from the original two-lot concept to a three- or four-lot plan.

The Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD), which has been studying the Route 6 corridor and gathering surveys for several months, will hold two public meetings, Robbins shared. The meetings will give SRPEDD the opportunity to hear residents' concerns and help to craft future use for the state roadway. Robbins, the Planning Board's representative to SRPEDD, said the agency is aggressively seeking input from the public in an effort to create a list of recommendations for state review. The project includes the towns of Fairhaven, Mattapoisett, Marion, and Wareham, she said. The public can access the survey at www.srpedd.org or pick up a paper survey at Town Hall. The meetings will take place on Thursday, November 8, at 6:30 pm in the Wareham Town Hall, and again on Wednesday, November 14, at 6:30 pm at Old Rochester Regional High School.

The next meeting of the Mattapoisett Planning Board is scheduled for November 19 at 7:00 pm in the Town Hall conference room.

Gagne and the members of the Finance Committee continue their review and preparation for the Fall Special Town Meeting on November 26, on November 1 they met with Kathleen Costello, administrator of assessing, so that she could present the taxes to be collected for the Town's newest PILOT program for the Tinkham Hill II solar array.

The Payment In Lieu Of Taxes (PILOT) plan showed the first payment of $33,804 is planned for 2020, with payments increasing by 2.5% over 14 years for an eventual total sum of $606,070. Costello also said that another "larger" solar array project was in the early stages of planning, but "it would be inappropriate to comment" until the plans are finalized.

Finance Committee Chairman Pat Donoghue said she had heard from several residents of Crystal Spring Road that heavy truck traffic associated with the construction of solar projects in that location had caused damage to the roadway. "There are costs associated with solar," said Donoghue. "[They're] not quite as free as they sound."

Costello defended the solar array developers, saying that she found them to be very responsive any time her office had informed them of construction problems. She said that abutters needed to make Town Hall aware of problems.

Gagne said that concerns over large trucks, possibly associated with construction on Crystal Springs Road, utilizing the one-way stone bridge on River Road had finally prompted action in the form of petitioning the Massachusetts Department of Transportation for a weight restriction.

"We are going to move forward to do what we have to for the DOT," Gagne confirmed.

It had been reported by neighbors in the area of the bridge that large vehicles attempting to use it had struck it. Surface damage to the interior walls of the structure bore evidence to that fact, they said. If the MassDOT approves the application, the weight restriction would be for vehicles with a maximum weight of 2.5 tons.

Gagne also said that the municipal landfill would be considered for solar panels that might produce energy that could be used to offset electrical costs incurred by schools and municipal buildings. He plans to include an article asking for funds to hire an engineering firm to prepare engineering plans for such a project.

Coming before the committee members requesting a new ambulance was Police Chief Mary Lyons. The discussion circled around the most cost-effective manner to purchase a new ambulance with a price tag hovering around $300,000. Lyons said the plan would include trading in the diesel ambulance, a vehicle that she said was becoming increasingly problematic and out of service on occasion, for a value of $7,000. Gagne said an analysis of the revenue receipts generated by the ambulance service found that over a three-year period approximately $300,000 to $350,000 was billed annually.

Lyons also discussed the need to pay for Mattapoisett's share of a new digital communications systems shared with Fairhaven and Acushnet in the amount of $150,000.

Regarding the balance of the warrant, Gagne said the selectmen would be reviewing the draft it in the coming days, at which time they would also consider engineering for new senior housing, dredging at the town wharves, sidewalk repairs, drainage improvements in certain neighborhoods, and Mattapoisett's MS4 Storm Water Permit Compliance.

Other articles in the draft included: a new outboard motor for the Fire Department Boat ($21,000), paving of parking area owned by the Mattapoisett Congregational Church utilized by the Council on Aging ($16,000), supplemental funding for caution lights at the bike path crossing on Mattapoisett Neck and Brandt Island Roads ($35,000), and the purchase of a new pump-out boat ($25,000).

The next meeting of the Mattapoisett Finance Committee is tentatively scheduled for November 12 at 6:30 pm in the Town Hall conference room. For confirmation of day and time visit www.mattapoisett.net.

Appeals meeting centered on the question raised by an application for 8 Pie Alley: what is the definition of reconstruction?

Thomas Ryan of TRSK Law, representing property owner Brian Keane at 8 Pie Alley, presented to the board the proposal to raze an existing garage and reconstruct a "carriage house" in the same location. The current structure has a height of 10.1 feet, with a proposed new height of 25.1 feet. The proposed use of the structure would be a home office for the applicant as well as recreational space for his family "to keep the kids close." The current garage is an existing non-conforming structure, located just 4 feet from the property line.

The sticking point for board member Tad Wallenhaupt was his contention that the project would not be considered a reconstruction under the zoning regulations. Wallenhaupt cited regulations 230.6.1G: "Any nonconforming structure may be reconstructed after a fire, explosion or other catastrophe or after demolition...", emphasizing that the regulation referred to demolition after a catastrophe.

Associate member David Bramley took issue with Wallenhaupt's interpretation, saying that project could be considered despite not being a result of a catastrophe.

Attorney Ryan was noticeably frustrated, disagreeing with Wallenhaupt's interpretation.

Board Chairman Marc Leblanc weighed in, saying that once the applicant demolished the garage he lost his ability to have a nonconforming structure, to which member Michelle Smith added, "So wouldn't [he] have to conform?"

Ryan's response was to suggest that, with regards to the issue of a hardship requirement, that the architectural design created a hardship – moving the structure to conform with setbacks would block the walkway to the house. Wallenhaupt replied, "Walkways can be moved."

The applicant's proposal to transform an unheated garage to a heated and plumbed structure underscored Wallenhaupt's belief that the project was new construction, not the reconstruction of a nonconforming structure.

The board voted to continue the hearing in order to gather more information from Building Commissioner Scott Shippey and from town counsel.

In other business, the board granted a Special Permit to Peter and Lorraine Sowden at 297 Converse Road to convert an in-law apartment to an unrestricted apartment. Member Betsy Dunn, who is friends with the applicant, noted that the apartment was on the applicant's property and assured the board they would not rent to a "flaming drunk." Wallenhaupt observed that the town needed more affordable housing, speaking in favor of "taking something that exists and [re-using] it."

The board also finalized the letter denying the Special Permit to Tabor Academy for the light poles proposed for its athletic fields.

The next meeting of the Marion Zoning Board of Appeals is scheduled for November 15 at 7:30 pm in the Marion Town House.

Economic Benefits Emphasized for Solar Project

Marion Planning Board

By Sarah French Storer

The proponents of a solar project at 78 Wareham Street wowed those attending the Marion Planning Board meeting on November 5 with a presentation demonstrating the economic benefits to town residents of their solar array.

David Davignon of N. Douglas Schneider & Associates gave a brief overview of the site plans and details of the project. The 78 Wareham Street property is currently owned by Henry and Judith Dejesus, who purchased the land approximately a year ago. ZPT Energy entered into a purchase and sale agreement with Dejesus for 21 acres of land, 18 acres of which they are proposing to clear for the solar farm. The site is predominantly uplands with a small isolated wetland that the Conservation Commission determined is non-jurisdictional. There are two curb cuts on Route 6 the project would use, with the northerly cut for access to the parcel. A 20-foot gravel access road will run to the rear of the property, and there will be grass maintenance roads around the site.

The 3.5-megawatt AC array is made up of 15,000 solar panels proposed at a minimum of 100 feet from nearby homes. There will be a chain link fence screened with arborvitae surrounding the array, as well as a 30-foot tree buffer to remain along Route 6. Limited grading on the site is required at the two detention ponds to ensure a separation from the water table. The drainage pattern on the site will be maintained.

Vice Chairman Stephen Kokkins asked how the project would be connected to the power grid. ZPT owner Brendan Gove explained that there is a high-tension power line easement adjacent to the parcel. Eversource, which is currently doing a system impact study, suggested ZPT connect to these power lines at the rear of the parcel. ZPT proposes siting a trailer to house large-scale lithium ion batteries, equipped with its own HVAC and fire suppression systems. The 4-6 month construction timeline includes interconnection to the grid.

ZPT provided a comprehensive look at the economic impact the solar farm would have on energy costs for residents. Additionally, the municipal cash windfall from the project in the form of taxes and other benefits sweetened the pot for the board.

According to ZPT, this project would prevent 5,107 tons of carbon from being released into the atmosphere, the equivalent of 5,457 acres of forest storing that same carbon. The board's ensuing debate prompted former Planning Board member and current Marion Energy Management Committee member Jennifer Francis, who helped write the current bylaw on solar farms to comment.

At issue with the bylaw has been the language stating "large-scale clearing of forested areas for the purpose of constructing systems is prohibited." Members of the board have been wrestling with the definition of "large-scale."

Francis noted that it was "short-sighted" to restrict the cutting of trees for a solar farm, considering the amount of carbon saved by the renewable energy source. She asked the board to consider the alternatives for the site – 40B housing or another subdivision.

Gove stated that developing solar in the Marion area is at a premium, citing the lack of suitable land and the high cost of real estate. The infrastructure has been poorly maintained, Gove continued, and with this project his company proposes to upgrade both the Tremont Substation in Wareham and the Crystal Spring Substation in Mattapoisett. This would also provide the opportunity for the Town to move forward with the development of the solar array on the town landfill, a project currently thwarted by the high cost of infrastructure upgrades.

Gove noted that his company would be interested in developing that site as well. Still, regardless of that, the infrastructure upgrades would be completed.

The ZPT project, if it entered into a community solar project with the Town, could provide residents an energy credit off their energy bill of approximately $5,728 over a 20-year period. This would appear as a 10 percent floating discount applied to a resident's entire monthly bill from Eversource, including both supply and distribution.

ZPT would also provide revenue to the Town through a PILOT program (payment in lieu of taxes) of over $1 million over a 20-year period.

ZPT also promised a donation of $10,000 to the Tree Committee to plant trees throughout town.

Gove illustrated the value to homeowners of the solar array, observing, "If you don't want to put holes in your roof, if you don't want to look at it or smell it, put the array where the town wants to and let residents take advantage of it." He added that PILOT payments could be flexible. If the town identifies a need, his company could respond to it, within certain parameters.

Planning Board member Norm Hills remarked that the town was already in a municipal aggregation program through SRPEDD. Gove said that was no problem – whoever supplies the energy to the town, the 10 percent discount still applied.

The discussion returned to the question of large-scale tree clearing. Gove reiterated the point from a previous meeting that the Massachusetts Environmental Policy Act considers large-scale to be 25-plus acres. Chairman Will Saltonstall stressed the point that scale is about context, saying, "Large is defined by the Town's perspective, to protect the neighbors. ... This is an industrial use in a residential area."

When Francis asked how many trees would be removed, ZPT representative Hal Reader said that approximately 2,500 trees would be cleared. Francis suggested that perhaps the company could be more generous in their donation for trees in town.

Town resident Sherman Briggs quipped, "I like trees, but we could sure use a town hall!"

The board continued the hearing for two weeks so it could fully consider the bylaw question before moving forward with a consulting engineer.

In other business, the board discussed the Briggs Residence E project and what its flexibility is with dimensional requirements.

Member Chris Collings observed that the board held some responsibility in the conflict with the requirements.

"We wrote up the Master Plan: we came up with new ideas – let's make it possible on the conflicts with the new ideas," said Collings, later adding, "[We need to] be able to give a simple face to developers, [assure them] the ground isn't going to shift beneath them. The ZBA is dealing with the trees in the forest – we are trying to change the forest."

Kokkins felt that getting town counsel's opinion on the Planning Board's role was a top priority, while Saltonstall concluded by saying the board needs to take a position that was "defensible."

The board took up a request from the ZBA to comment on a request by P&L Realty Trust to convert an existing in-law apartment to an unrestricted apartment. The board drafted a letter to the ZBA, taking issue with the language in the permit request.

The bylaw the request referenced does not allow for an unrestricted apartment, rather only an apartment that provides affordable housing. In its letter, the Planning Board emphasized to the ZBA the affordable housing stipulation would need to be part of any approval of an accessory apartment. However, the ZBA had already approved the unrestricted apartment at its meeting on November 1.

During that meeting last Thursday, ZBA member Betsy Dunn commented that the applicant was a friend of

District Hires Second Choice for Exec. Director Carver, Marion, Wareham Regional Refuse Disposal District Committee

By Jean Perry

On November 1, the members of the Carver, Marion, Wareham Regional Refuse Disposal District

(CMWRRDD) Committee formed a tentative employment agreement for district executive director with Jeffrey Osuch after two months of contract negotiations with first choice candidate, Michele Bernier, fell through.

"We could not come to terms with Michele," said Marion Town Administrator Paul Dawson during a follow-up on November 6. "We did move on and we're working out the final terms with Jeff, but he has accepted."

Bernier and Osuch both interviewed for the position as two of the three finalists back on August 29, and a 7-1 positive vote resulted in Bernier as top pick and Osuch as runner up.

The committee was optimistic about the prospect of hiring Bernier, with CMWRRDD Committee member (and Marion Selectman) Norm Hills referring to Bernier as a "visionary," with other committee members concurring.

Osuch is the former Fairhaven executive secretary of 27 years and was also the DPW director for Fairhaven for ten years prior.

Osuch will replace Ray Pickles who was executive director since the district was formed in 1973 until he was fired in February of 2018. Pickles was subsequently accused of defrauding the district and embezzling public funds in a civil suit filed by the district against Pickles, his wife Diane Bondi-Pickles, and former Carver Health Agent Robert Tinkham, Jr.

The next meeting of the Carver, Marion, Wareham Regional Refuse Disposal District has not yet been scheduled.

only logging nine carries after being cleared to play on Monday, but he did score one touchdown on a 27-yard run.

"It feels great to finally be back and play for my team and do something," he said. "It really sucks standing on the side and not being able to do anything. I'm really glad to be back."

Garcia and the rest of the offense also took care of ORR head coach Justin Kogler's greatest concern coming out of the win over Stang: ball security. After turning the ball over four times against the Spartans, the Bulldogs never surrendered a takeaway, while logging three of their own on defense.

"The last two weeks we've been horrible with the turnovers," Kogler said. "All week long we worked on it and stressed it and we have to continue to work on it and stress it. If we don't turn the ball over, we're a tough team to beat. We make it easy on people when we turn the ball over."

The Bulldogs (9-0) will host No. 2 Ashland (8-1) on Saturday at 7:00 pm. Ashland won its opening round matchup with No. 6 Norwell, 25-16, and followed that up with a 19-14 win over No. 3 Medway.

No. 5 ORR (14-8) volleyball saw its season come to an end in a 3-1 loss to No. 4 Apponequet (16-6) in the quarterfinals of the MIAA Division 2 South tournament.

After losing the first set 25-15, the Bulldogs came back in the second set to win 25-19. ORR took control of the next set, but could not maintain its grasp to the finish, losing 25-22. The Bulldogs then scuffled out of the gate in the fourth set. Although they made a small comeback, Apponequet held on to its lead, winning 25-19 to secure the match.

South Coast Conference All-Star Natalia Wierzbicki was strong at the net for the Bulldogs, leading the team with 21 kills and four blocks. Fellow SCC All-Star Delaney Soucy was strong in defense for ORR, finishing with 26 digs. ORR setter Micheline Ditata was consistent throughout, logging 31 assists.

This was the final game as a Bulldog for Samantha Nicolosi, Delaney Soucy, Natalia Wierzbicki, Lea Bourgeois, Ashley Soares, Maya Doonan, and Jennifer Durocher.

"Every single one of those kids played a huge role on this team at one point in this season or another," Jimmy Oliveira said. "They're 100 percent going to be missed. They're the first class I had for four years. A lot of them I had as freshmen and sophomores on junior varsity. I took over varsity when they were juniors. That connection is definitely going to be missed. But I think they left their mark on the program; there have been several records set. I'm proud of them."

Dear Editor of The Wanderer,

I am a student at the Old Rochester Regional High School. I just wanted to write to you today to tell you that your magazine does a great job of providing articles and photographs of all the fun and exciting events that happen at all the schools in the tri-town school district. It keeps people informed about the many cool things that kids are doing and learning about in their communities.

I really enjoyed the article, "OC Wows Old Hammondtown with Robotics" by Erin Bednarczyk from November 2nd. It was awesome to read about how the kids from Old Colony are sharing their technological skill with students from other schools. Engineering is a field that I'm planning on going into myself! I love your magazine, and you do a great job with it! Keep up the good work!

Respectfully,
Colin Mackin

To the Editor:

The cover of your September 20th Wanderer featured a mural at ORR painted by Amber Jones in honor of her childhood friend, Beckett Kiernan, who tragically died after completing basic training. Ms. Jones's mural is significant not only for Mr. Kiernan, but also for every veteran who answered the call of duty and gave the ultimate sacrifice for our country. The reference of Flanders Field and the poem, In Flander's Fields by John McCrae, brings to mind that this year's Veteran's Day, November 11th, is the 100th anniversary of the World War I armistice.

Last year Mary O'Keefe, a Mattapoisett resident, spearheaded an effort, Bells of Remembrance, to bring back the custom of tolling the bells on November 11 and her project was adopted by the Mattapoisett Woman's Club. Local churches and municipalities from Mattapoisett, Wareham, Fairhaven, and Marion were contacted and participated in the tolling of bells. Now in the second year, many other churches and municipalities have been called throughout the Southcoast as well as Boston and the Cape and are joining the tradition not only this year, but also in future years.

The United States World War One Centennial Commission has a participation app for Smartphones that may be downloaded to our individual phones by going to the computer website YourACE or ww1cc.org/bells and following the directions. The app has a

To The Editor:

This letter is in response to the coverage at the recent town meeting of the incident that occurred between two dogs, resulting in one of the dog's death, Winnie. As the owner of the other dog Stella, whom we recently rescued, I felt it important to further represent myself and my family against the facts of what happened.

To begin with, Officer Adam Murphy's quote, whether it was from the witness or not, about how this "larger animal out of nowhere just struck and grabbed a hold of the other dog" is factually incorrect. Furthermore, his comment about how we "just walked off", was not even a quote that existed on the original witness account. That literally was never said, nor did it happen, and I did mention it at the meeting. A bigger, and important, part of this story, is how this all happened. What I talked about in my statement at the hearing is the fact that Ms. Hagan, Winnie's owner, initiated contact and conversation with me about Stella and was making inquiries and comments about our dog, which turned into a full conversation and prompted me to walk over to them in the first place. There was no attack "out of nowhere", not even from the witness statement, nor did she ever say that we "just walked off", which makes me appear to be indifferent and callous, far from the truth. I was equally shaken by what had happened. As I said, which was covered in the article, the dogs were getting to know each other. I had no reason to believe that would likely occur.

The second bit of information important to mention is the other incident that occurred with our neighbor's dog, who came to speak out on OUR behalf, not "somewhat in our defense of Stella". This was not "another dog attack" by Stella, as Ms. Hagan's mother claims, who has no factual information on the matter. This was a simple scuffle between two dogs that resulted with a nip on a leg, nothing more. As my neighbor said in his statement, we really don't even know who started it, and it only lasted a couple of seconds. I think it's important to recognize that bigger dogs don't always have to be the aggressor and that there are far worse behaved and aggressive dogs in smaller breeds (NOT my neighbor's dog, of course).

In no way am I not affected by what has happened, nor am I trying to brush off blame, but better understanding and people may see there's more to this story. This dog lived her first 3 years of life in an enlarged chicken coop with mesh flooring, defecating where she slept and stayed, hosed down when necessary and used only for profit until she was no longer of any use. We're just trying to give her a nice home for the remainder of her life and get to know her better. I am very sad for Winnie's family that she is gone, I truly am, but Stella is also loved and cherished by our neighbors, family, friends, and even acquaintances she meets on the street. She is not the vicious dog she has been portrayed to be. This is a hard lesson learned, and we are taking the necessary precautions and steps to help her get better and keep everyone safe.

Sippican Historical Society

In 1998, the Sippican Historical Society commissioned an architectural survey of Marion's historic homes and buildings. The survey was funded one-half by the Sippican Historical Society and one-half by the Massachusetts Historical Commission. Due to the limits of funding, not all of the historic buildings were surveyed, but over 100 were catalogued and photographed. The results of the survey are in digital form on the Massachusetts Historical Commission's website and in four binders in the Sippican Historical Society's office (and at the Marion Town Clerk's office).

Marion (Old Rochester) is one of the oldest towns in the United States, and the Sippican Historical Society maintains an extensive collection of documentation on its historic buildings. The Sippican Historical Society will preview one building a week so that the residents of Marion can understand more about its unique historical architecture.

This installment features 27 Main Street. Built in 1834, the Dr. Walton Nathan Ellis residence at 27 Main Street is now the Sippican Historical Society's museum.

In addition to his duties as a village doctor, Ellis was responsible for founding Marion's first public library in 1855. In 1872, he helped organize the Natural History Museum above the Elizabeth Taber Library. He served as the Republican postmaster of Marion at a time when the position was a political appointment designated by the president of the United States. The small foyer of his home served as a post office. Ellis's daughter, Annie, married Sylvanus W. Hall, who was appointed postmaster by Abraham Lincoln and served 36 years.

The clinics will be held at:

Scouting for Food

Marion Cub and Boy Scouts are Scouting for Food until November 11. Kids in town will be approaching your doors again soon. But this time, they won't be ringing doorbells or looking for Halloween candy. Marion Cub Scout Pack 32 and Boy Scout Troop 32 with the generous support of their charter organization St Gabriel's Church of Marion, The Marion Police Department, and The Marion Police Brotherhood are once again collecting food for community members in need. Neighbors with a scout in their vicinity will be left a door hanger at their home on Thursday, November 8 and a scout will return to pick-up donations on Saturday, November 10. All you have to do is leave a bag or box at your door and the Scouts will deliver it to the Food Bank. For those community members around town who would like to support this effort but do not have a scout living near by, the scouts will be collecting donations at the Marion Police Department and St. Gabriel's from now until 11:00 am on November 11. Following the Veteran's Day Ceremony, scouts will bring all donations to a local food bank.

As Scouts, we know how fortunate we are to have a warm meal every night — whether around the campfire or at the kitchen table. And we know that not everyone is so lucky. Please help our scouts do their good turn daily by providing healthy, non-perishable food for those in need. Dietitians suggest donating a variety of nutritious items, such as cans of chili, soups, tuna, pasta sauce, peanut butter, evaporated milk, fruit, and vegetables. This gives hungry families more of what they need. Please no glass items, no open containers, and no frozen items.

Please contact us at marioncubscouts@gmail.com with any questions or to join scouting.

Marion Cultural Council Members Needed

Are you interested in supporting local cultural events in Marion? Have you considered serving on a board and helping to determine how to disperse funds for cultural events? The Marion Cultural Council is looking for two volunteers interested in serving as voting members who can help share ideas and knowledge when making determinations of how funding for the cultural council is dispensed. There is 1 voting meeting per year and several small duties during the year that include checking over paperwork and minor administrative duties. The council will have some room to potentially create a council run event in 2019 as well. Please come to our annual voting meeting at the Music Hall on Thursday, November 29 at 6:00 pm to learn more. This is a 6 year appointment, and we are looking for a few folks to help fill this volunteer role!

Please contact Kristen Saint Don, Chairperson of the Marion Cultural Council, with any questions about becoming a member. MarionCulturalCouncil@gmail.com

Applications are available at the Marion Town House, 2 Spring Street, Marion, MA 02738.

Marion Recreation Offers Youth Soccer

If you are traveling on Dexter Lane in Rochester on a Saturday morning, you may see a future World Cup star. Why? The Marion Recreation Department offers a youth soccer program for boys and girls ages 3-13. Residents of the Tri-town area, Acushnet, and Wareham participate in this fun, learning experience. Currently, approximately 300 youngsters participate in the program under the direction of Eric Parada. Several volunteer coaches assist Coach Parada. The only cost is $95 for uniforms. For fifteen years, this program was known as the Oceaneers, but was taken over four years ago by the Marion Recreation Department.

You may be wondering what exactly do the little ones do in this program. They learn the basics of soccer, teamwork, and sportsmanship. Once they master the basics, they are able to have scrimmages with other participants their own age. More importantly they are outside getting exercise, fresh air, and having fun.

For older players who have the necessary skills, they engage in games with their peers. They also have the opportunity to play other teams in the area. The most experienced players may be part of the travel team. This team plays teams on the South Shore who are the same age. For any youngster hoping to play soccer in high school, this is an excellent way to learn the game. Soccer (or football as it is known across the pond) has become incredibly popular in the U.S. in recent years. Virtually any hour of the day, you can find a game on television. Both men's and women's World Cup are two of the popular events worldwide. Everyone recognizes the names Mia Hamm, David Beckham, Manchester United, and the New England Revolution.

If you are looking for an activity in the fall for your child, consider the Marion Recreation Department soccer program every Saturday morning (weather permitting). Safety and your child's health come first. It is so much wiser to let your child learn the game from people who know the game. This is the best way to avoid injuries.

Lions International Peace Poster Contest

Caroline Brogioli, a 6th grade student at Old Hammondtown School has taken the first step to becoming an internationally recognized artist by winning the local competition sponsored by the Mattapoissett Lions Club. Brogioli's poster is among more than 600,000 entries submitted worldwide in the 31st Annual Lions International Peace Poster Contest. Lions Club International is sponsoring the contest to emphasize the importance of promoting Kindness to young people everywhere.

"Making someone's rainy day feel like a sunny day," Brogioli said is what kindness means to her. The poster was selected for its originality, artistic merit, and portrayal of the contest theme - "Kindness Matters".

Helene Rose, project chairperson, said she was "impressed by the expressive creativity of the students at Old Hammondtown, and grateful for the support that this project receives from the school administration, staff, and students yearly. It is obvious that these young people have strong ideas what kindness means to them. I'm so proud that we were able to provide them with the opportunity to share their vision."

Brogioli's poster will advance to face stiff competition through the district with multiple district and international rounds of competition if she is to be declared the international grand prize winner. One grand prize and 23 merit winners will be selected. The grand prize includes a cash award of $5,000 plus a trip for the winner and two family members to an award ceremony. The 23 merit winners will each receive a certificate and a cash award of $500.

"Our club is cheering for Caroline as her poster advances in the competition and we hope that her vision will be shared internationally with others around the world," Club President James Nadeau stated.

Locally, Brogioli and the other participants were honored for their participation at the morning assembly at Old Hammondtown School on Friday, November 2.

Caitlin O'Donnell was awarded second place and third place was awarded to Taylor Walsh. Each of these three participants were awarded gift certificates to Just Kidding Toy Store in Mattapoissett.

Lions Club International is the world's largest service club organization with 1.4 million members in more than 47,000 clubs in 200 countries and geographic areas. In addition to its effort towards conquering blindness, the organization has made strong commitments to community service and helping youth throughout the world. Our motto is "We Serve." ## Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

My dog itches almost constantly in the summer and fall and loses hair over his back near his tail. A friend said it could be caused by fleas, but I rarely find more than one flea at a time. Any thoughts?

Your friend may be right. Many dogs and cats are allergic to flea saliva. All of the changes in your dog's skin may be caused by 1 flea bite per week. Cats with flea allergy dermatitis tend to get small scabs over their body. Treatment involves strict flea control in your home as well as on your pet. Talk to your veterinarian about Advantage, Frontline, Nexgard and Seresto.

by local agencies. Socialization has been identified as an important element of their program leading them to solicit ideas for activities that resonate with its members. It was gratifying to hear what is happening in other communities and to realize how much the Marion COA is able to offer our community with a full-time director and building now in place.

Recognizing the success of the regular Monday programming, the Friends of the Marion Council on Aging is committed to ongoing funding to support these well attended educational, social, and engagement events. As programs and attendance at the Marion Council on Aging grows, so must our resources.

Members can make it all happen! To reach our goal, we are hoping to expand our membership with tax deductible contributions – big and small – to continue to support programs. We hope many residents of Marion – young and old – will consider becoming a member of the Friends of the Marion Council on Aging. Each membership will help defray the cost of the growing number of programs offered at the Community Center as well as provide the vital resources that make everything possible. Big or small, membership will make a direct and lasting impact on your Marion neighbors.

Gifts can be made on-line at www.FMCOA.org or by mail to Friends of Marion Council on Aging, P.O. Box 937, Marion, MA 02738. There are a growing number of volunteer opportunities. If you would like to get involved, please let us know.

Set to Tchaikovsky's beloved score, the performance follows young Mary through a night of adventure. You'll begin at the lavish home of Captain Ephraim Williams where many guests, including Herman Melville, arrive at a holiday party, and the family celebrates the homecoming of the Captain after years at sea. He shares tales of his travels and comes bearing gifts, including exotic dancing animals, and of course, a beautiful nutcracker for young Mary. After Mary drifts to sleep, the real adventures begin as the audience watches battling mice and soldiers, ending with the triumphant defeat of the Mouse Queen. The magical journey continues as Mary sails through dancing snowflakes to the Land of Sweets. The performance is filled with colorful and playful characters from around the globe, including those unique to the New England region. The audience is entertained by Chinese, Spanish, French, and Russian dancers, as well as whaling sailors and Native Americans. The performance brings a much-loved international holiday tale into our hometown.

This original adaptation of the traditional Nutcracker ballet, created by Rebecca Waskiel-Marchesseault, Director of the New Bedford Ballet, features choreography by Ms. Waskiel-Marchesseault, Erin Petitjean Allen, and Eugenia Zinovieva. The performance takes place in New Bedford Ballet's studio, offering an intimate environment charged with the dancers' energy. This simple version with narration is

OBITUARIES

James M. Kelly, 71, of Marshfield died October 31, 2018 peacefully at Sachus Nursing Home after a long illness.

Born in Dorchester, son of Theresa M. (Kelly) Kelly of Fairhaven and the late Melvin Leo Kelly, he lived in Marshfield and New Hampshire before returning to the South Shore.

He enjoyed New England sports teams and painting.

Survivors include his mother; a brother, Robert Kelly and his wife Michelle of Mattapoisett; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was the brother of the late Patricia Ann Nickerson and Donna Marie MacFadden.

His Funeral Service was held on Monday, November 5th in the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home for Funerals, 50 County Rd., Route 6, Mattapoisett. Burial followed in the Massachusetts National Cemetery. For guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Eileen Corrigan Lonergan, 52, died peacefully on October 31, 2018, surrounded by the love of family. Eileen is a remarkable mother to three remarkable girls and the best partner a husband could ever hope for. She will always be a beloved daughter, sister, and friend.

Eileen was exceptionally kind and smart. These qualities paired powerfully with a lightning-fast wit. To be with her was truly joyful. She had a quiet but powerful presence. She battled cancer fiercely, bravely, and with exquisite grace and good humor.

Eileen was born on August 24, 1966, and grew up in Saline, Michigan. She graduated from Michigan State University in 1988 with a degree in Advertising. In 1993, she married Eugene (Gene) Lonergan and their adventurous spirit carried them buoyantly, making homes in London (where the 'London Girls' were born), Singapore, and Hong Kong before settling in Marion, MA in 1999. Gene and Eileen recently celebrated 25 incredible years of marriage.

She was the G.O.A.T. (Greatest Of All Time) mom and according to her daughters, she had only a hint of irony in her voice in her frequently repeated "I live to please" refrain. When it came to cooking (every single night), "Whatever you loved--that would be what she'd make." Lunches were packed (every single day) in a similar spirit. Many of her friends would say that they wanted to bottle whatever was going on at the Lonergan home because the parenting results were THAT spectacular. Eileen loved to volunteer. She spent numerous hours offering her time to Friends Academy, where the girls spent many years. She was often seen volunteering at the Beverly Yacht Club, CCD for St. Rita's Parish and at the Marion Public Library.

A friend from Junior High School said that even back in the days of their youth Eileen loved technology and could foresee the coming information age. Naturally entrepreneurial and visionary, she was proud to have built her own successful website design and marketing business. Her articles were published in in the U.S., Canada and the UK and she was named one of the 12 Woman to Follow by WordPress in 2016. Her clients glowed in testimonials about her creativity, coaching, and an uncanny knack for gently pushing them toward a better way.

Eileen was always on the go. Whether jogging with her golden retriever Rusty, trying to crush her Fitbit challenge group or on the Peloton alongside Gene, Eileen was nearly indefatigable. In March she completed a half-marathon in Philadelphia with Fiona. She remains, in perpetuity, the inaugural Bay Club Triathlon Champion.

She was predeceased by her father, John Corrigan. She is survived by her husband, Gene and their three daughters, Maura, Elizabeth and Fiona of Marion; her mother Barbara Corrigan of Marion; her sister Patricia Corrigan and her husband Edward Kelley of Melrose, MA and her brother Sean Corrigan of Guilford, CT; and beloved extended family and an army of friends who thought she was just the greatest thing ever.

Visiting hours were held at the Saunders-Dwyer funeral home, 50 County Rd. Route 6, Mattapoisett on Monday, November 5th. A memorial and celebration of life mass was held on Tuesday, November 6th at Tabor Academy's Wickenden Chapel in Marion, MA.

In lieu of flowers, gifts in memory of Eileen Lonergan may be made to University of Massachusetts Memorial Foundation (UMMF) in support of her friend, Karl's cancer research in the Simin Lab. Gifts can be made online at www.umassmed.edu/give or mailed to:

Office of Advancement
UMass Memorial Medical Center
333 South Street Shrewsbury, MA 01545

Checks should be made out to "UMMF - Simin Lab" and should note that the gift is in memory of Eileen Lonergan. For guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Bishop Stang to Present A Christmas Carol

The Bishop Stang Theatre Company will present everyone's Christmas favorite, A Christmas Carol, adapted for the stage by Patrick Barlow. Nineteenth-century London comes to life and recaptures for audiences the spirit of an old-fashioned Christmas with this timeless Dickens classic and all the favorite characters — Tiny Tim and the Cratchit family, the Fezziwigs, the Ghosts of Christmas past, present, and yet-to-come — and everyone's favorite curmudgeon, Ebenezer Scrooge.

Charles Dickens wrote A Christmas Carol originally in 1843 and stands as one of the most beloved and well-known Christmas stories today. It is the story of wealthy miser Ebenezer Scrooge, who is visited by a series of ghosts on Christmas Eve that take him through the past, present, and potential future of his life. By the end, Scrooge's view of the world, his community, and himself is left profoundly and permanently changed.

A Christmas Carol has had countless adaptations for virtually every medium, including stage, television, film, opera, and radio. Patrick Barlow's adaptation is perhaps the most accessible version of the Charles Dickens classic. Part of the reason is that playwright Patrick Barlow injects a lot of humor into the piece. This comedy takes place because Barlow is able to mine the humor which can be found in the language, the situation and, of course, at times, the mood of the play. In the end, the play does capture the sincerity and joy of Scrooge's redemption. It is an adaptation which works extremely well.

The Bishop Stang Theatre Company's production brings together a talented cast including: Arianna Barboza, Phoenix Carreiro, Emma Chause, Gia Chessa, Emily Defreitas, David Habboosh, Neda Habboosh, Caleb Hughes, Philip Marcalo, Xavier Markey, Chicka Okafor, Allison Pereira, Lily Saulnier, Myra Wong; along with nine area children, featuring Luca Westgate as Tiny Tim.

The curtain goes up on Friday, November 9 and Saturday, November 10 at 7:00 pm on the stage at Bishop Stang High School, 500 Slocum Rd., North Dartmouth. ## Addiction and Recovery Drop-In Center

Please note a date change for the Addiction and Recovery Drop-In Center in November. Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the Addiction Drop-In Center, which is usually open every third Wednesday of the month from 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm, will next be open on Wednesday, November 14 from 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm. The Drop-In Center will return to its third Wednesday of the month meeting in December (December 19). The Drop-In Center, which is held in the Parish Hall of The Church of the Good Shepherd (74 High Street, Wareham), is a place where those who need and want to be treated for their addiction can be helped. It is a place where resources related to addiction can be found, including recovery support groups and support groups for those whose loved ones have an addiction. Narcan and Narcan training is available at the Drop-In Center. Remember, addiction is not about choice or a reflection of one's moral character, addiction is a disease that takes hold of one's life and we should treat it as such.

November marks the first anniversary of the Addiction and Recovery Drop-In Center, which is held monthly at the Church of the Good Shepherd (74 High Street) in Wareham. On Wednesday, November 14 beginning at 6:00 pm, a Service of Remembrance and Hope will be held in the church. During the Service, we will be remembering those who have died from addiction and supporting those who are in recovery from addiction. There will be two speakers at this Service: a person in long term recovery and a person who has lost a loved one to addiction. During the Service there will be an opportunity for you to remember your loved one, by name, lost to addiction. A reception will follow in the Church Hall. Everyone is invited and welcome to attend. The Wareham Fighting Addiction Drop-In Center will be open from 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm in the church basement on November 14. Addiction, recovery, and supportive resources will be available for those in need of assistance for themselves or for a loved one. Remember, addiction is not about choice or a reflection of one's moral character: addiction is a disease that takes hold of one's life and we should treat it as such.

MOVIE REVIEW

Under Cover

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

BlackKkKlansman*. Starring John David Washington and Adam Driver. Directed by Spike Lee. Running time: 135 minutes. MPAA rating: R. Now available on physical and streaming home media.

In a way, Spike Lee's filmmaking career from the beginning has been a rebuke and retort to the infamous Birth of a Nation, the movie credited with sparking the comeback of the Ku Klux Klan in America. In 1980, in film school at NYU, a 23-year-old Lee made the short film The Answer, in which a black screenwriter is hired to write a remake of the D.W. Griffith film. In BlackKkKlansman, Lee stages a screening of Birth of a Nation for an audience of hooting white supremacists, including Klan grand wizard David Duke, and intercuts it with an account of the 1916 lynching of Jesse Washington, during which a witness (played by Harry Belafonte) links the atrocity to the release of Birth of a Nation the year before.

Lee knows the power of cinema to influence and change. Will BlackKkKlansman do likewise? As a work of (somewhat fictionalized) protest, it's a piece of the past (the early 1970s) passing trenchant comment on the present; time will tell if it will have much sway in the future. What it is right now is an attempt to unify rather than to divide — the movie shows black and white people working together to shut down the racists. It may begin and end with blasts at racism, but most of BlackKkKlansman is an object lesson in cooperation between different races, colors and creeds. It does this in a half-satirical way that's as much about acting as about reality. Black men have to pretend to be racist white men; Jewish white men have to pretend to be anti-Semitic white men. Based loosely on the adventures of a real cop, BlackKkKlansman shows rookie detective Ron Stallworth (John David Washington) posing, over the phone, as a white man interested in joining the local Klan chapter, so that Stallworth can infiltrate and learn about possible terrorist plans. Stallworth is black, so he can't carry out his disguise in person; enter Jewish cop "Flip" Zimmerman (Adam Driver), who in a spooky basement meeting with a virulent Holocaust denier makes an equally Jew-hating case for the Holocaust having happened. Whichever one of the four credited writers (Lee, Charlie Wachtel, David Rabinowitz and Kevin Willmott) is responsible for this scene, it's a masterpiece of rhetoric.

Eventually, Stallworth talks his way up to the top, securing himself (or Flip) a meeting with David Duke his own bad self (Topher Grace, teaching a master class in mealy-mouthed corporatized racism). The filmmaking heats up, changing from fluent coolness to a hot thriller mode, charging towards a climax fabricated for the movie but no less dramatically and thematically sound. Lee's inventions don't offend much, because even if some events didn't happen to Stallworth, they've happened elsewhere, and Ron comes to stand not for himself but for the disenfranchised who have tried to negotiate a hostile territory through defensive imposture. Blacks passing as white, Jews passing as gentiles, gays passing as straight (this last doesn't get much play in the movie, except maybe through amusing subtext).

Undercover cops have to understand the banality of evil in order to assume it as cover, which often means understanding their own self-hatred or potential for bigotry. Actors and artists do much the same, and the movie finds Lee wearing both entertainer and artist hat. BlackKkKlansman argues for a world where no one has to pretend to be anything. I think Lee would even rather racists were open about it, sunlight being the best disinfectant and all, instead of hiding behind the hypocrisy of dog whistles and three-piece suits. Lee has taken the opportunity to deliver an existentially crazy police procedural that ends up saying more about society's disease than many a sober-sided Oscar-chaser. Not that the movie doesn't deserve it — c'mon, Academy, can you acknowledge Spike now, please?

area. She has had the opportunity to perform, coach, and choreograph for the last 21 years and hopes to never stop dancing. She shared that she "hopes to inspire those who don't fit the stereotype of what a dancer looks like to pick up dancing and fall in love with it, just the same way I did."

The show will include various forms of dance from contemporary to hip hop to ballet. Williams has also introduced an African piece to the show and many others as solos, duets, and company numbers. "This year we hope to connect the audience to the meaning behind each piece and to share what the dance program is like to encourage others to join us in the spring or in the fall of next year," said Williams.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You enjoy the attention early in the week, but it might be a good idea to opt for some privacy by week's end so that you can have more time to consider an upcoming decision.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You unearth some surprising facts. Now you need to consider how to use them to your advantage. Meanwhile, it might be best to keep what you've learned secret for now.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A comment by a colleague piques your curiosity to know more. Best advice: You'll find people more likely to offer information if you're discreet when making your inquiries.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your energy levels begin to rise by midweek. This allows you to catch up with your heavy workload and still have plenty of get-up-and-go to go out on the town this weekend.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're probably roaring your head off about a perceived slight from a longtime critic. Ignore it. That person might just be trying to goad you into doing something you might later regret.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) The early part of the week is open to spontaneity. Then it's time to settle into your usual routine to get all your tasks done. A personal situation could require more attention from you.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A meeting of the minds on a workplace project might well develop into something more personal for Librans looking for romance. Aspects also are favorable for platonic relationships.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A more-positive mood might be difficult to assume in light of a recent problem involving the health of someone special. But by week's end, your emotional barometer should start to rise.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Look for a changed attitude from a former adversary once he or she realizes you have your colleagues' full support. Now you can refocus your energies on that workplace project.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) This time, a difference of opinion might not be resolved in your favor. But be patient. It could all ultimately work out to your advantage, as new information begins to develop.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A tug of war develops between the artistic Aquarian's creative aspect and his or her practical side. Best advice: Prioritize your schedule so you can give appropriate time to both.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You could be entering a career phase awash with job-related demands. But avoid being swamped by the overflow and, instead, keep treading water as you deal with demands one by one.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are an exceptionally loyal person, and you're respected for your ability to keep the secrets entrusted to you.

Take Time to Remember on November 11

The peaceful and democratic society we enjoy was created by the efforts and sacrifices of generations of Americans who have put their lives on the line in the cause of peace and freedom around the world. Remembering and learning all that Veterans have sacrificed helps us better understand our nation's history and its future.

At the end of the World War I, many people heard about the Armistice through bells ringing. When the bells rang out on the 11th month of the 11th day on the 11th hour in 1918, they announced the end of the most catastrophic war the world had yet seen. This year, 2018, marks the centenary of the Armistice, now called Veterans Day.

To collectively remember and honor those veterans who put their lives on the line on the battle field, the Mattapoisett Women's Club launched a "Veterans Day Bells of Remembrance" project in 2017 to rekindle that spirit of togetherness. The Bells of Remembrance project is asking communities throughout Massachusetts to pause for a minute of silence and mark the centenary of the Armistice by ringing church and municipal bells on the 11th month of the 11th day on the 11th hour. Last year, several churches and municipal buildings from Wareham, Fairhaven, Marion, and Mattapoisett participated by ringing their bells and this year many more Massachusetts communities will participate.

There is a special free smart phone app "Bells of Peace Participation" that is available from iTunes and Android stores and that may be downloaded onto your smart phone. The app has a built-in countdown timer and will toll 21 times on 11/11/11 in remembrance of this very special moment when the fighting stopped. Go to ww1cc.org/YourAce on your smart phones and the site will direct you how to set up Bells of Peace.

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club has resolved to promote Bells of Remembrance on November 11 to remind the public of that Armistice Day peace pledge. We are also asking church members either in their bulletins or from the pulpit, to work for peace. One hundred years after the first Armistice Day, and given the special significance of this year, 2018, the commemoration takes on added importance. Let's pause for a minute of silence and ring those bells on the 11th month of the 11th day on the 11th hour to commemorate the end of the "War to end all wars!" and recapture peace on 11/11/11.

How much would you pay for a white painting? Would it matter who the painter was? Would it be art? One of Marc's best friends, Serge, has just bought a very expensive painting. It's about five feet by four, all white with white diagonal lines. To Marc, the painting is a joke, but Serge insists Marc doesn't have the proper standard to judge the work. Another friend, Ivan, though burdened by his own problems, allows himself to be pulled into this disagreement. Eager to please, Yvan tells Serge he likes the painting. Lines are drawn and these old friends square off over the canvas, using it as an excuse to relentlessly batter one another over various failures. As their arguments become less theoretical and more personal, they border on destroying their friendships.

The cast includes Scott Fishman as Marc, Tony Oliva as Serge, and Lee Bonia as Yvan. Those behind the

Friends of the Mattapoisett Council on Aging

The Friends of the Mattapoisett Council on Aging (FOTMCOA), a non-profit, non-governmental group, has been aiding COA programs and supplementing the needs of senior citizens in the community for many years. During that time, the FOTMCOA has purchased furnishings, appliances, and televisions that the COA has used in its social rooms for the benefit of seniors frequenting the COA.

In the community, the FOTMCOA has provided financial support to seniors in need of such items as a new refrigerator or kitchen stove.

The group also sponsors the monthly COA newsletter "Seasonings," as well as hosting various special event luncheons throughout the year giving seniors the opportunity met up with other seniors for a bit of fun and food, social emotional support enriching the lives of Mattapoisett's senior population.

The fundraising work of the FOTMCOA supports COA programs, education, and other needs for which public funds are either not available or need supplementing.

Due to a decrease in membership, new members are now urgently needed to carry on the mission of the FOTMCOA.

Can you help? If you can share an hour once a month to attend the FOTMCOA meeting or wish to assist in any way possible, please contact Anne Bartnowski at 508-758-4603 or email at annebartswife@yahoo.com.

50+ Job Seekers Networking Group

Area residents are invited to participate in a job-networking group specifically designed for individuals aged 50 years old and above. The group is geared to the needs of a range of participants including those unemployed, underemployed, unhappily employed, returning to the workforce after a gap, or retired and seeking a totally new career direction. Those looking for full- or part-time employment are welcome. There is no charge for the program.

Each session will focus on a different topic including assessing skills, developing a job search plan, revising resumes, creating a LinkedIn profile, interviewing, networking, and more. In addition to providing a supportive environment, the sessions will offer materials, strategies, techniques, and other resources, which can accelerate the often tedious and discouraging search for a job. The issues of ageism will also be integrated into each session to provide participants with an understanding of the age discrimination that is often experienced in the job search process.

The formal session will be from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm. Participants are encouraged to arrive at 12:30 pm to check-in and for networking.

The program is funded by the Massachusetts Executive Office of Elder Affairs and managed by the Massachusetts Councils on Aging (MCOA) in partnership sciences annually. This program is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency. Administered by 2,400 municipally appointed volunteers, the LCC network consists of 329 councils serving all 351 Massachusetts cities and towns. Each year, local councils award more than $3 million in grants to more than 5,000 cultural programs statewide. These include school field trips, afterschool programs, concerts, festivals, lectures, theater, dance, music, and film. LCC projects take place in schools, community centers, libraries, elder care facilities, town halls, parks, and wherever communities come together! Grants from LCCs are reimbursement-based. (The applicant expends their own money, and if approved for a grant, then submits paperwork for reimbursement.)

I Found the Aardvark!

Each week, hidden somewhere in the pages of The Wanderer is a tiny drawing of an aardvark. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

Once you find the aardvark you can submit your answer online and if you are right you will get Aardvark Points! You can then use these points to get cool Aardvark Prizes!

To enter visit: www.wanderer.com and Click on I Found the Aardvark
